#68 POST WORLD WAR TWO OPERATIONS AT CONGRESS PARK ILLINOIS
 Leo Phillipp has authored an interesting account of his and others' experiences working on the East End for the Burlington and its "Northern" successor in the 68-page Burlington Bulletin 68. Working with a host of contributors including the Archives volunteers, there was a plethora of material to sort through and make the hard decisions of what to include and unfortunately omit. We hope this 68-page Bulletin will give you, the reader, an insight into the operations at the least recognized, yet very busy locations on the Burlington, Congress Park. The Bulletin begins with a brief overview of Congress Park and its history, then delves into the business of traffic and transfers at "The Park" and the "Park Job" AKA the "Congo."
